

LiveTec is a Chicago-based company determined to sell affordable kitchen range hoods and ventilation/ bathroom fans to contractors and homeowners. We believe in selling quality products to our customers and constantly using customer feedback to improve products and overall service.

LiveTec focuses on two areas: affordability and customer service. We realize that not all homeowners can afford to pay thousands of dollars for a range hood or hundreds of dollars for a “silent” bathroom fan. Nevertheless, we aim to price our products affordably to consumers in hopes that they will enjoy our product and refer us to family and friends. LiveTec believes that most homeowners are on a budget. Furthermore, consumers on a budget should still experience quality while keeping cost low.

Hence our motto “Exhausting Your Kitchen and Bathroom, Not Your Budget.”

In addition to affordability, we offer strong customer service. All our products come with a 3-year limited warranty. The industry standard is typically 1 year; but LiveTec is confident in its products and will reinforce that with our extended warranty. We also provide quick response time to all email or phone inquiries. It is extremely important that customers can have any questions or issues resolved in a timely matter. Furthermore, LiveTec takes pride in ensuring customer satisfaction in a manner that we, as consumers, would like to be served.
